

Thrombosis Summit
Saturday, September 27, 2008
Boston, MA

The North American Thrombosis Forum is hosting a 1-day symposium emphasizing clinical science and professional education is intended to provide a concise, state-of-the-art overview of prophylaxis measures and critical developments in the diagnosis, treatment, and prevention of thrombotic disorders. Focused sessions in 5 key areas include 1) translational research, 2) clinical research, 3) prevention and education, 4) public policy, and 5) advocacy. The Thrombosis Summit is a CME accredited programs for physicians, nurses, and pharmacists.

Highlighted topics include:

- Pharmacogenomics of Warfarin
- HIT: Controversies and Updates
- Thrombosis and Cancer
- Anticoagulation Management and Warfarin Safety
- Prevention of Coronary Heart Disease
- Estrogen and Thrombosis

More information or to register, please visit: www.NATFonline.org.

Traveling Fellowship
Application Deadline: July 15, 2008

The North American Thrombosis Forum is awarding one $5,000 fellowship to cover lodging and travel for a physician (either Junior Faculty or physicians-in-training), scientist, nurse, or pharmacist to explore cross-disciplinary diagnosis, treatment, education, and research related to thrombosis. More information or to apply, please visit: www.NATFonline.org.