Dr. Davila graduated from Ross University School of Medicine in 2007 and completed her residency in Pediatrics at SUNY Downstate Medical Center in 2010. She went on to complete her fellowship at the joint program between Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center and New York-Presbyterian Hospital of the Weill Medical College of Cornell University in 2014. Dr. Davila joined the faculty as Assistant Professor of Pediatrics in the Division of Pediatric Hematology/Oncology at the Children's Hospital at Montefiore in 2014. Her efforts led to the establishment of the Hemophilia Treatment Center at Montefiore in 2016, where she is co-director. This study will allow clinicians to more confidently integrate DOACs into the clinical care of pediatric patients, as the team awaits the results from ongoing prospective trials.
