HEMATOLOGY FACULTY POSITIONS
UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

The Division of Hematology/Oncology, Department of Internal Medicine, and the University of Michigan Comprehensive Cancer Center seek applicants for faculty positions specializing in general hematology. Applicants (who must be either U.S. citizens or resident aliens) must be board certified or eligible in hematology +/- medical oncology with interest and expertise in the evaluation and management of patients with hematologic disorders. The successful candidates will have the opportunity to participate in patient care in a multidisciplinary environment, fellow and staff training, and clinical research. Academic rank and salary will be based on prior experience. Selected candidates have the opportunity to be a member of the established Hematology Program in the University of Michigan Comprehensive Cancer Center, a clinical and translational research program with over 30 faculty.

Interested individuals should forward a curriculum vitae and letter describing clinical and scholarly interests to Moshe Talpaz, MD, Division of Hematology/Oncology, University of Michigan e-mail: mntalpaz@umich.edu or David C. Smith, Division of Hematology/Oncology email: dcsmith@umich.edu

The University of Michigan is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer and encourages nominations and applications from women and minority candidates.
